Meeting of the Southern Ohio Valley Chapter of CMSA
March 22, 2007
Special Continuing Education Presentation:

“Case Managers: Critical Members Of The Transplant Team”

Learning Objectives:

- Describe how the case management process is used to identify risk factors for transplant patients.
- Review changes in transplant procedures and their impact on outcomes measurement.
- Identify currently evolving technologies and procedures with transplantation.
- Describe how partnerships can be developed between health plan case managers and transplant program staff to support optimal care coordination for the patient.

Presented By: Connie Commander, RN, BS, CCM, ABDA, CPUR

Connie is the current National President of CMSA and principal of Commander's Premier Consulting Corporation. She has over 25 years in development, implementation, and management of numerous medical management departments. She has held numerous management positions in health plans, clinic models, and in the Independent Physician's Association in the Chicago and Houston areas.

Utilizing both local and national affiliations, Connie mentors others in the art of case/care management. She has published and presented at a national level on issues relating to utilization and case management, department development, and enhancements utilizing medical management software to assist with outcome measurements. She views networking and staying current as personal and professional responsibilities.

This meeting is made possible by the generous support of the following Platinum Sponsor:
