May 17, 2007
Special Continuing Education Presentation:

“What’s New In Care Management For 2007?”

Learning Objectives:

- Discuss current healthcare financial issues and fragmentation which complicates the system.
- Describe the buzzwords and trends regarding care management.
- Explain the challenges to case management.
- Discuss choice for patients regarding care continuum management, outcomes and pricing.

Presented By: Susan Rogers, RN, BSN, CCM
National Past President, Case Management Society of America
CEO, Rogers Professional Guidance

Susan A. Rogers, RN, BSN, CCM is currently the National President of the Case Management Society of America (CMSA) and the CEO/Principal Consultant of Rogers Professional Guidance. She has worked as a nurse case manager for almost 15 years. She began as a generalist case manager working with psychiatric and medical cases then transitioned to managing workers' compensation cases, developing life-care plans, and administering product lines. She established a utilization management process for rehabilitation professionals and developed a PPO network on the provider side. Her experience includes psychiatric and oncology nursing, catastrophic medical and workers' compensation case management, rehabilitation collaborative practice model development and utilization management, hospital system case management development and external review. Published in the Remington Report, Inside Case Management, and NRRTS News as well as multiple local publications, Susan advises many practice settings. She specializes in teaching and consulting on nationally trended, cutting-edge health care issues. Her passion is in medical case management.
